Camp Break Through is facilitated by Paul Figueroa, a retired police officer who has changed the lives of thousands of children with his positive, wonderful and highly successful techniques. He has been combining fun, games and theatre since 1996. He founded The Village Project in 1997.

*"One youngster shared the difference noticed after last years Breakthrough Camp was:
"I feel loved"*

After the camp, the children showed:

- a 209% increase in making positive choices with their anger
- a 300% improvement in how much they feel cared about!

"This is important work, with advantages to all of us. Our youth need the type of support and skill that Mr. Figueroa provides." Joan Johnston - Educator of 28 years

Location: 6532 Phinney Ave N.

Times: 9:00 am to 3:00 pm

Tuition: $275.00 for the week*

*Some scholarships available.
